BT's policy is not to disconnect customers for non-payment of bills unless 28 days have elapsed from the despatch of the relevant bill, except in cases of suspected fraud. Customers who are late in paying receive at least two reminders from BT, one of which is normally given by telephone, before the company considers disconnection. BT takes this action only as a last resort after giving customers an opportunity to agree revised payment plans.

Classified directory business in the UK

The company is providing the following information with respect to its classified directory business in the UK in accordance with undertakings made with the Office of Fair Trading in July 1996. For the year ended 31 March 1997, the classified directory business of BT made an operating profit of £166m on turnover of £389m and, at 31 March 1997, it employed net assets of £118m. Since the classified directory business is integrated with the company's wider operations, this financial information incorporates the effects of certain apportionments and allocations of expenditures and assets.

BT is required to submit annual audited accounts in respect of the classified directory business to the Director of the Office of Fair Trading within nine months of the company's financial year end. Copies of these accounts, when available, may be obtained free of charge from the Financial Director, Yellow Pages at Queens Walk, Reading, RG1 7PT.

Financial, operational and regulatory statistics have been restated where necessary to provide consistency with the presentation of the 1997 figures.
